REPLY TO ACTION OF NOVEMBER 3, 2004

On October 28, 2004, prior to the mailing date of the present Office action, applicant filed a second preliminary amendment. A voice-mail message was left for the Examiner on October 28, 2004 informing the Examiner that applicant was filing a second preliminary amendment.

As indicated by the enclosed copies of the date-stamped post card and the first page of the preliminary amendment as obtained from the PTO's on-line PAIR system, it is clear that the second preliminary amendment was received by the PTO on November 1, 2004. That second preliminary amendment should have been considered for the following reasons:

- (i) The second preliminary amendment was received by the PTO before the mailing date (November 3, 2004) of the present Office action; and
- (ii) The request for continued examination (RCE) dated August 19, 2004 included a petition for a three-month suspension of action to allow the applicant to consider the filing of
